Hello, my name is Al Buciorelli, Chief Operating Officer of American Athletic Track and Turf.

I am proud to say that 2024 represents our 42nd anniversary of setting out to develop a company whose core goals would be to consistently construct the highest quality outdoor sports facilities in the industry and create a work environment where employees would know that their contributions to our goals are valued at the highest level possible.

It is our sincere belief that these goals and our philosophy of “seek perfection, accept nothing less than excellence” has differentiated us from all our competition.

With 13 national awards and thousands of award-worthy installations up and down the east coast, I know that no other company has the desire, capability, and experience to protect your hard earned dollars the way American Athletic Track and Turf has been so honored to do so over these many years.

Please know when you engage our firm today, nothing has changed since our inception, and our sole goal will be to construct your new facility to the highest standards achievable and where safety, performance, longevity, and value are maximized to the fullest extent.

Similar to our commitment to excellence in our work, we are equally as proud to be a partner with a first-class organization in the NJ State Interscholastic Athletic Association. On behalf of American Athletic Track and Turf, I want to wish all members, coaches, and athletes the best of luck these championships weekends. To learn more about American Athletic, please feel free to visit www.trackandturf.com

Best of Luck,

Al Buciorelli
